~~I was so ill, I can hardly~~

~~hold up my head. To save the life~~

~~of myself, & mine, I could not raise~~

~~2 to, as a proof of my distress, I~~

~~have been forced, to return with, a~~

~~situation, of the 10 day, because~~

~~I had not the means of going to it.~~

~~Case I say more? Every exertion~~

~~has been made; This by my case;~~

~~with, at all wants be paid, till the~~

~~time. Mr. Pollock's duty to do~~

~~would have been of use, had she~~

~~lived. It is Mr. Smith's opinion~~

~~which no one would go to law for,~~

~~after having it in their hands~~

~~I have~~ been decided, as to the terms of ~~the~~

... and have no objection but
... I certainly, had other
... founded on the best opinions
... I solicited your aid, which I had no chance to, but distasteful mind, and body.

I should be glad, to obtain, I owe you some long hours, what can I do, but
: please, your indulgence, till I have the power, to do as I wish, I am with respect Sir
