

Exeter 2. Feb<sup>r</sup> 1820.

Dear Sir,

I have been honored with your Communication of yesterday, announcing that the Procession with the Remains of His late Royal Highness the Duke of Kent will move from Exmouth on Monday morning next at 8 o'clock.

I will take care that the Escort, & the Band of the 1st Light Dragoons shall reach Exmouth on the preceding afternoon.

I have sent Instructions to the Sergeant of the 1st Light Dragoons in charge of the

J. General Wetherall

 Exmouth.

Detachment at present at Sidmouth, that himself & 3 of the R. & P. will form part of the escort from Sidmouth to Dorchester, & that the remainder of the Detachment will return to Mad Des on Sunday, provided their presence at Sid-mouth is no longer required: But I am anxious that you should understand that there is no hurry whatever for their return, if they can be rendered in any respect, useful, after the mournful Ceremony has closed at that Place.

I remain, Dear Sir,

Your very sincere & obedient

J. C. Dalhousie Col.

Sir,

I have the honor to inform you, that a communication has this day been received from the Lord Chamberlain's <sup>Office</sup> by the Rev. & David Williams Rector of Bridport, announcing that the remains of His late Royal Highness the Duke of Kent, will arrive at Bridport, and be deposited in the parish church on the night of Monday next, the 7th Instant; and that a letter was on Wednesday recd. at Bridport post office, addressed to, "Captain Pray commanding a Troop of Yeomanry, Bridport." which letter was by my direction forwarded to Capt. Pray, of the Saddlers' Troop of Yeomanry, and which it appears, was intended for the Commanding officer of the Bridport Troop of Light Horse. Permit me to request the favour of your informing me, whether it be intended to command the service of the Bridport Troop on this occasion, & <sup>such</sup> ~~that~~ orders as you may think requisite.

I have the Honor to be, Sir,

Your most obedient humble servant

Dear Sir

You can easily imagine my Surprise at the Account of the late unexpected death of my poor Brother, not knowing till two days before of his being ill, having only two days before received a letter from him dated the 27th Dec & from Sidmouth wherein he says he had arrived there in perfect health & that he intended to visit me after his death, has the goodness to send me a letter and also to answer my request which is to give me every information of the particulars of his illness as I am told by experience he was taken ill or of any thing in the least which interested me so deeply. The poor and I had go to my very last, but the goodness to say to the former every thing for me, not knowing her I do not write upon and a melancholy because, but tell her no one is more deeply sensible of the loss we have all made. Let us entreat you therefore to give us a fair account of this melancholy Event & how we feeling to write to the D<sup>ch</sup> also I never saw in my life, yet I think it was respectful and kind towards her to write her a few Lines which I have done, therefore you need not mention any thing to her on the Subject. I send also two Letters one from the Duchess, & one from Princeps William

Dear Sir

I cannot let this day's post leave this place without writing you a few lines to thank you for your letter & its enclosure which as you can easily believe was most highly interesting, & at the same time most painful for me to read. What a pity it is to consider that had the Duke been more attracted to himself, & had less tended to Dr. Wilson's Advice on insight State perhaps he would have been, & though so much and deeply allied to myself I cannot help saying that at least I could have existed there his own, as found to his friends. It is from his gift you to myself though I do not know her still I feel the deepest interest for her as she was so attracted to my late brother, pray give her my thanks - Yours very sincerely C. M. G.

London - Sunday 28th 1833 -

My dear Colonel,

I have this moment returned from Lord Mills' levee, who says that it is impossible that the Battalion under your command can be made Light Infantry, that His Majesty has resolved not to make any more

To Lt. Colonel George Augustus Boucherell (of the 2nd) unless there is a War — As to the G. B. Lord Mill has promised order an order made to consider your claims & services; it was really gratifying to me to hear the manner His Lordship spoke of you & I trust you need not be afraid of the result with which I expressed myself of your merits, & the high opinion I entertained of you as a Com<sup>d</sup> Officer, I really think Lord Mill is inclined to serve you — I had the pleasure of being presented to your Brother at the levee —

Paper Sealed

Dec 13. 1854

My dear Wetherall

Let me assure my best congratulations on your appointment to the highly honorable and distinguished post of Adjutant General the duties of which you will transmit as you have hitherto done, to the reputation of the British & to your own credit.
 You are in an excellent Staff Officer and greatly esteemed by us all. Adieu

To Major-General G. A. Westcott

1854

Recently had a trip to Constantinople where he accomplished a great deal for the and I dare say the change was of use to his health.

Remember me kindly to Simpson and Peck. I owe the latter a word and will write to him by the next mail I expect to hear from my family that the Quarter Master General is so well. He has not time to write

Send Harding message you a capital deputy to Simpson. You must let him take a day's rest every now and then, to keep the soul off.
Yours faithfully
