

London Nov 8 1832

Sir

I returned from Kent last night.
 I think that we shall now shortly have the leaves entirely off the trees; and that we may go into the woods for hunting and shooting with the expectation of sport.
 I beg leave to express to your Royal Highness of your intention of shooting me with your Company at the field near Her Royal Highness the Duke's was likewise to good as I promise to come there. I am afraid that as your horse has gone & starting,
 Her Royal Highness will not like to go there.

I am going to stay this day; and I purpose to remain here excepting occasional absences for a day till Christmas; when I shall be absent about a fortnight; and I shall then return and remain here till the meeting of Par^l

I shall be happy to receive your Royal Highness and see Royal Highness to the best on any day that you will find between this and Christmas; or after Christmas.

I beg your Royal Highness and I give you a little notice that I may write some lines
I have the honor of meeting J. G. P. R. H. H.; and I shall be very much obliged to your Royal Highness
