

Per Regent's reply to Address from House of Parliament [May 14/1812]

I thank you for this very kind address

The assurances you have given me that you will concur in
in such measures as may be necessary for making a provision for the widow and family
of the late Regent are I believe most welcome
truly gratifying to my feelings & I have thereby to be enabled to perform an Act to those who under the ^{circumstances} ~~would~~ which they have the experience have the stranger claims upon the liberality of the Country

It will be a satisfaction to me ^{at the same time} ~~to have~~ to see ~~the~~

be enabled to make ~~the~~ ~~best~~ ~~use~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~advantages~~
The sense which ^{must} ~~is~~ ~~the~~ ~~result~~ of the ~~study~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~history~~ of an ~~epoch~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~past~~ I want whose ~~life~~
has been ~~prematurely~~ abridged by the ~~most~~ horrible of all catastrophes
