

R. H. Jenkinson to Lady Liverpool Theobalds [1815]Paris - Monday
Friday

My dear Lady

I send you the minutes & L'ordinaire
 wh. will give you the proceedings of the Corps Legislatif. & the speech King's speech to them yesterday. — The results of the day are very unfavourable —
 there is every reason to fear King's troops will not stand & that he is in consequence

R. H. Jenkinson to Lady Liverpool Theodora [1815]

endeavouring to save. I protect them - but
 : narrow round Bona. Still refuse to act
 : hostile - not being able against their Country - I face him. - has: ever - Bonaparte : Donald is understood comes promising a to be given to Nelson General Pardon except to command a body of to further harassment the troops they have of Talleyrand, who has collected there - but I distance less to be fear little can be the former is an ion. hoped from them - the : sequence come up National Guard have from like to Paris - repeated their assurances all is quiet here - & of the King & Royal family has been so near death:

...entirely to day for the town is almost deserted this is a melancholy picture - but I find too true - Bonaparte is supposed to be within 100 miles of the capital. - we can obtain no accurate information as to the real state of his force.
- excuse haste & believe me always Yours Affly
