

King's answer

Sir M. Malford to my Mr Knight &
Dr W. sent to Mr M for reminding his M^{ty} that he had given the to him yesterday.

Dr B. interrogated appearing his son, & an aperture of Westminster
School not being in existence.
& informed as he had received a letter from Dr Heberer in New York that old C^t had arrived at Stralitz, & being with Mr Roggdom.
~~related~~ told Mr D. he should marry
Mad^{lle} Jacobine.

related his intention of purchasing Dr River's estate & taking the Title of Gloucester, & relinquishing the Title of Dorset to Dr. Ceteris.

told Mr D. He liked him because he was a lineal descendant from B. Bunt, who was the greatest him in the world, &
that therefore he would not help telling lies.
