

927

927/1

I hope you well
~~Excpt~~ of my love
Elizabeth

927/2

M^r Compton
Safford Road

X/

my dear M^{rs} Compton

i beg you will accept of an appon that i gave you and it is however work.

Elizabeth.

From Princess Elizabeth
born 1770 May 27

To
M^{rs} Compton

Pcess Royal

929

Nov. 1777

12/

Dear Madam,

I wish you Joy of your Marriage: which for my misfortune is done done never to be undone. How could you be so Sly as not let any body know of when you was to be married.

Dear Madam,

your affectionate

friend

Charlotte Augusta Matilda

Nov 4th
1777

Mr. Comptrol Royal
Nov. 4. 1777

To Messrs Comptrol

929

12

Dear Madam

I was extremely sorry to hear that you had one of your ~~bad~~ ^{other} Head-aches but I am very glad that are better Prince Adolphus sends his love to you he told ^{last} Mamma this morning that you had one of your eyes
 My sisters and me have got in the Lottery Twenty pound and what I have got is for you I hope you will accept it I am ever yours &c

Augusta

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page]

Handwritten text, possibly a signature or name, oriented vertically.

932

13a

[Faint, illegible handwritten text]

[Faint, illegible handwritten text]

To Mr. Compton
Queens House
London

Per my August
Jan. 20. 1777

Nov. 21 1777

934

15

the others for your self.

Pray always love me as I always shall you.

Dear Madam,

One of your best

Friends.

Charlotte Augusta Matilda.

Nov 21st 1777

935

16

Princess Royal presents Her Compliments to M^{rs} Compton & begs
she will do her the favour to come to Breakfast next Sunday at 9 a Clock.

December 1777

Nov. 21 1777

934

To
M^{rs} Compton

Prin^{ce} Royal
Nov. 21. 1777

Dear Madam,

I have the misfortune of loosing you, the only thing that does comfort me is that I hope you will be happy & I beg that you will not cry, for it will make you ill & that will make me unhappy as I love you very much.

I now beg you will accept these trifles the Cloke for your first Child

935

16/

Prin^{ce} Royal presents Her Compliments to M^{rs} Compton & begs
she will do her the favour to come to Breakfast next Sunday at 9 a Clock.
December 1777

Princess Royal presents Her Compliments to M^{rs} Compton & begs
she will do her the favour to come to Breakfast next Sunday at 9 a Clock.
December 1777

935

16/

Dear Madam,

I had ~~next~~ Monday Serenight, I can not help thinking of it tho it hurts me very much, pray think you have a most sincere Friend in me, I hope you will be happy.
You have my most Sincere Wishes..

Dear Madam

ever yours

Charlotte Augusta Matilda.

Nov 22. 1777

Prinap Royal
Nov 22: 1777

To
Mrs Compton

Nov. 24 1777

Dear Madam,

To my great Grief, I find you quit us Tuesday Week. It hurts me very much, but if you are happy, that is all I wish. I can assure you that I love you from the Bottom of my Heart & always shall.

Dear Madam,

Your Friend.

Charlotte Augusta Matilda.

Nov 24th 1777.

Pinap Royal
Nov. 24: 1777

To
M^{rs} Compton

79

Dear Madam

I promise if out that I will be very good all day

I hope you are well I have desired M^{rs} Shevly to buy for you a bottle of glass for you. I am ever

Yours truly
M^{rs} Shevly

Born 1760

M^{rs} Shevly

Nov. 23 1777

Dear Madam,

Pray do tell me where your House is, that I may kiss my Hand to you every Day, when I walk by your Windows.

I beg you will allow me, to continue to write to you, for it is a great happiness to me, you know how much I love you.

Dear Madam.

Your Friend

Charlotte Augusta Matilda

Nov. 23. 1777

Prinsep Royal
Nov. 23

To
M^{rs} Compton

Nov. 25 1777

940

27

Dear Madam,

I am very much hurt at your loss, which is to soon a Week, of a Year, at least I think so.

The greatest Comfort I have is to write to you to think of you, I can assure you that you are the first & greatest Object in my thoughts. I always shall both love & respect you. I hope you will soon come to see me.

Dear Madam,
ever yours.

Charlotte Augusta Matilda.

Nov. 25th
1777

Pinus Royal
Nov. 25. 1777

M^{rs} Compton
L

Nov. 22 1777

941

Compton

To Mrs

Dear Madam,
 I beg you will not go till after Christmas, I am sorry it is so soon. I do not think you love me, tho I do you, for if you did you would have told me that you was married. I never never shall forget you, was I not to see you I should be very unhappy.

Dear Madam,
 ever yours

Charlotte Augusta Matilda

Nov 22nd 1777

942

24

Princess Royal presents Her Compliments to Mrs Compton, & begs she will do Her the favour to come next Thursday at 3 a clock in the afternoon to see her.

Wednesday 17th 1777

9 Dec

Princess Royal presents Her Compliments to Mrs Compton; & begs she will do Her the favour to come next Thursday at 3 a clock in the afternoon to see her.

Wednesday 17th 1777

9 Dec

942

~~24~~

Dear Madam

always
 I desire that you will Remember your poor child assure you that she was very surpris'd when the Queen told her that you desired to go away from her my Dearest Love I had nothing worth for a Marvell Present but I promise you that I will send ^{you} ^{you} a ring for a cap or something like that My Dear Madam
 I am ever yours and ever shall be.
 Augusta

I here Inclose a little Letter from Adolphus.

Nov. 26
1777

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the paper.]

Enclosure

To his Majesty

Dear Cuppy I love you very much,

Adolphus.
Duke of Cambridge
b. 1774.

To Mr Compton

Miss Bageot
Nov 26. 1777
P. 66

Dear Madam,

Nov 26th 1777
4. a Clock in the afternoon

I thank you for your Letter which is delightful.
Mr Compton told me it was his fault that I did not see you at the Window. I thought you would have been there, & It was a Fault, ^{so much} ~~still~~ more as I think a sight of you the greatest happiness in the World & I would give up any thing for it, I hope to see you tomorrow there.

I will always keep your Letter & Read it ^{over} often

Dear Madam
your affectionate Friend.

Charlotte Augusta Matilda.

Enclosure

To Mr Compton

26

Dear Cuppy I love you very much,

Ad-My-hus.
Dated Cambridge
b. 1774.

Envelope

To his Computer

945

26

Dear Cyprian I love you very much

Adolphus.

Ben 1774
Duke of Cambridge

b. 1774.

Enclosure

To His Computer

945

26

Dear Copying I do

Adol

Prince Adolphus
Nov. 26. 1777