

Queen's Palace Jan^y 4th 1704.

The King has put off the due tomorrow not from any return of complaint, but to avoid the fatigue of that Ceremony. He means to hold the Council in the Great Council Room tomorrow as previously proposed, and has sent notice of this to the Lord President by Mr. Addington

George B

[Faint, illegible handwriting in cursive script, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

[Large, stylized cursive signature or word, possibly 'Mary' or 'Anne', written in dark ink.]

[Faint, illegible handwriting in cursive script, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is mostly obscured by the paper's texture and fading.]

Jan. 31. 1804

A. M. is answer in a Note written by me at the request of Mr A. & the D. of
I. I. made A. M. from attending the Council
the next day. —

M. B. — This was just at the commencement of A. M.'s illness. —