

1. Not only the working of the Mill to be charged to each Division of the Establishment according to the proportion of its Workmen and those to whom the benefit of the Mill has been allowed; but this of course admits that against each Division must be placed the amount of the Charity it occasions.

M^r. Hunt's Salary and the expence of his ~~and~~ his Partners visits cannot be justly placed on the Norfolk but on the general extra account ~~expence~~ called the Park ~~Account~~ Account.

Lieutenant General Harcourt has been desired to enquire what different Farmers would give for the permission of grazing 7000. Sheep weekly in the Park and on that must depend the charge to be paid by the Norfolk Farm to the Park for the like advantage.

I had an opportunity myself to enquire of a Neighbouring Gentleman, who told me that the usual price pro score for the Week for grazing not shearing is from 5^s. to 6^s. 6^d. which is from 3. to 4^s per sheep.

[The page contains several paragraphs of handwritten text in a cursive script, which is extremely faded and difficult to decipher. The text appears to be a formal document or letter.]