Sept. 1805.

Royal Sovereign September 10 1805

Dear Greenwood

Many thanks for your two letters, which I should have acknowledged sooner if it had been in my power but my time has been so much occupied here I have been so as you will easily conceive that it has been quite out of my power.

As I shall only return to Town on Thursday it will be out of my power to accept of your kind invitation to dinner till next week, but on ^{next} Tuesday I shall be very happy to visit my new Comptroller at Brompton.

On Thursday I hope that you will come to Holland or Waltham see Henry through the talkers, and I trust that you would get the same benefit.

information concerning the New Grenadier
I enquired for the least objection to the young gentleman recommended by you for the purchase of a company in the 1st Regiment of Grenadiers, I shall not be there for several days by two o'clock on Thursday, when I beg to see you at the Duke's and believe me

Yours most sincerely
