

Duchess of York
Dec. 1819.

Waltham December 31st 1819

It is very reluctantly I defer, so long My Dear Mr. Greenwood, to offer you my best thanks for the most beautiful Gems and Shank, I found on my table on A-mos the which I owe to your kindness, I shall find a double satisfaction in wearing them, as a just mark of that friendly attention, which I have experienced from you, on so many occasions.

Mr. Smith has been so good to you to miss to convey my little present to Audley Square, I was unwilling however to send them him without a trifle of my own work, may you only find the most fortunate days to make down in His little Almanack.

I feel I have express'd very badly ~~and~~ all I wish'd to say to You, it is My first and only Attempt to write in English, but if it ill told I beg to assure You, that the ~~less~~ I wish I offer for Your speedy recovery and that every Blessing may attend You, cannot be more sincerely express'd. Y<sup>r</sup>

By Your truly and affectionately friend and servant
of
