

Princeps Augustus
October 1826

Prinzessinnen
No. 11. 1826.

My Dear Sir
I should not have let your kind letter <sup>have</sup> remained so long unanswered, but that it was necessary for me to consult Col. Stephenson with the whole of the Commission, that I might have the pleasure of his good judgment as to the making such arrangements as should facilitate the business.
I am not only glad to meet with your wishes, but also to see they contained by the error in which neither testimony nor could have kept me for such a length of time. I shall be well with a visit to you, or will see you as soon as you return to London, when I trust everything will be settled by your satisfaction. I would be glad to return you my most grateful thanks for the friendly manner of your regard on having spared me out a moment of much difficulty which I do assure you I shall never forget.
I had the pleasure of seeing Mrs. Russell & her daughter on Monday last and I really had not found them looking as they would not be in such Natural clear public spirit for length of time never great or any continuance so. My trouble was with with the same impression was on that day and that there was not the smallest observation on any thing he did or said and which we have not too often committed during this long and true Fairfield struggle - I hope your own spirit as well as mine you have been in the country - but your conversation you cannot ever have under the same affection which you have before so deeply, that not only the individual in question is much regretted but that every soul has felt with equal humanity for the grief that you have personally sustained

Believe me Dear Sir

Your very sincere friend

Wm Pitt
