Prince of Wales
June 1796

My dear Greenwood,

I should have answered your kind letter sooner, but I have been much troubling as you may easily suppose. By all means desire that Mr. Matthews may be nominated for that great secretary at that Province.

I know Sir George. God rest his soul, thought I hope Sir William will succeed him, & that I shall succeed Sir William, it may at the same time for you to trust up some People's names upon this. As I understand that the thing is to review some day the Supp. Petition

in the evening (Book), it might rather wish to revise the old objection, that no Officer being a Regular Regiment in the Service, should at the same time hold a Commission in the Militia; the Duke of the hand is so uncertain & that that it is impossible to depend upon him, but he certainly did make a declaration in 1750. that should that ever be the case he should certainly resign the other for the regular Militia; should that be the possible case and the Duke for her, deignate it as possible. I am Dear Government,

George
