

Admiralty Office ^{sr} 21 May 1827-

Mr. Bannan presents his compliments to Captain Sir William Hoste, and acquaints him that Mr. Right Honble W. Fremantle the Treasurer of His Majesty's Household, has received His Majesty's Commande to embark in the Royal Sovereign Yacht on the 25th Instant, to proceed in her, to receive and attend on Her Majesty the Queen Dowager of Wirtemberg, and to regulate for Her Majesty's entertainments on board.

Sir William Hoste is therefore to understand Captain Sir W^m Hoste B. K. C. B. That

GEO. A.

that as Mr. Suermann is a principal Officer of Her Majesty's Household, he is to take the head of Her Majesty's Table while on this duty, and his directions for the Queen's accommodation are to be strictly attended to.

It is also desired by His Royal Highness the Lord High Admiral, that Captain Sir William Hoste shall sit at the foot of Her Majesty's Table while on this service.

of the
to the
to
the Order of the

of the 6th & 7th Nov 1800