

Admiralty Office
9. June 1827

Sir,

I am commanded by His Royal Highness the Lord High Admiral to acquaint you that the Lord Chamberlain and Lord Steward have been informed that His Royal Highness has received His Majesty's commands that the yacht you command should attend His Royal Highness, at a visitation of the Dock Yards, on which His Royal Highness is to proceed about the 1st of July, and which will last about a month or six weeks: and the two Departments have been desired to issue the necessary orders for preparing for the reception of His Royal Highness.

Yours
Captain

Wm 40a

per Wm Boote M. K. G. N.

Royal Sovereign Yt. Deptford

has

has however been acquainted that no preparation need be made of provisions for His Royal Highness's table;
as all articles of that nature will be supplied by you and paid for by this Department.

I am

Yrs

Your very Obedient Servant

Wheler