

Admiralty.
Aug 6: 1828.

Dear Sir,

I have ordered the Admiralty Jacks to be ready on <sup>the</sup> 17th instant with one of the Steam Vessels to carry your daughter the Dutcheff to Calais where she is to meet her mother and bring her over to Dover. The Dutcheff has not come back till <sup>the</sup> 20th and she is desirous you should accompany her. She also requests me to say that if Lady Harriett is well she trusts she will also be of the party. I therefore wish to give you some time next Wednesday and on the following morning we can arrange every thing finally with out for the Dutcheff.

Your friend,
Wm Pitt Rivers
