

Brisby House.
 Oct. 11: 1828.

Dear Sir,

I am to acknowledge your offer
 - today and must do justice to Lord Melbourne in his appointment of you to the Royal page that he intended it as a just compliment to your me-rit. As for any chance of the Sects help going ahead that must entirely depend on circumstan-ces as they arise at the time and perhaps then it might be convenient to Mr. Christopher Cole on ac-count of Parliament to remain in town. I should always prefer you to any other Captain.

You must take care of your good dinner of course you will thro' the bad season now when you assist us. You are that I am glad at the very period of life when the attack you have had is to be expected with peculiar affect and this happy conclusion of your illness does the duty of a friend and an individual ends. This one of your most dear friends, I cannot forget ever the duty of the amiable and useful attention of Lady Harriett to you in your com-plaint and see with desire to be kindly remembered.

 - I do her and hope for her happiness as well as for your own so be you will be quite yourself again.

God bless you as I ever believe me,

Dear Sir,

Yours truly

W. Mearns
