

[1809]

August 16th 1811 -

Dear Sir

I did not even acknowledge the receipt of your letter I had from you on the second mentioned what you wished to know, but I cannot now say why owing to a few lines on I have taken to my brother's receiving your letter with Mrs D. which she said was undoubtedly of course - I hope I need not tell you with what real pleasure I have found to your writing to me and trust the writing will serve to show your being here by the 1st of September - I beg to know some particulars about how long you will be in here enclosed in your former letter was the length and otherwise if on the whole they are more convenient than you expected. I will much to visit the Duke of Devonshire with you every the letter if I put it into your hands - By having been to show Lady C. she I hope is now quite recovered and again her that though I have not had the pleasure of seeing her for such a length of time that my mind is glad for her in the same - I beg you to be very than have to you and believe me ever your very sincere friend

From J. S. Popham
