

July 29th 1840.

Dear Sir

I am thousand thanks for your kind letter and I would then give him to inform you that on Wednesday next I shall send you the £250; however I am proceeding to where I have applied to have it safely deposited into your hands without me to require you that at any time you will receive it whole to deposited that but she is such a kind that I may she with and it by a safe hand and I'd behold in it to be sure of it; so let me know what time on Wednesday and if you are not at home why that time we should receive it - I say nothing about the remaining interest as you will let me know about that and I am very and it
 - let me know a time by Monday night but -

Yours truly
 J. J. J.
