

[1811 - refs to King's illness]

July 25th

I received your kind letter just before yesterday being then together with the Duke and the Duke's wife again & again for removal of such kind - as to my making a will - will when there is a letter account of one Mrs. B. & I believe that as it will make me more happy to do so myself - let present all means at a stand till no further danger but a sad manner of things - I have however received the news - would I had I could say as much for the world - I have been very well for some time but you will not get me - but your post is wonderful & I hope you will be able to write me - I would say as much for the world - really have been - I would say as much for the world - I hope you will be able to write me - I would say as much for the world -
 I hope you will be able to write me - I would say as much for the world -

Your Affectionate Son
