

after death of Sir W. Parsons

August 10th
1817

It is wholly out of my power to say how much pleasure to suppose that my house felt as the principle of these kind of affectionate letters which was really desired by Miss. [unclear] together with the very valuable papers which conveyed to [unclear] a proof of these kind of [unclear] me - I would have been [unclear] to the [unclear] of my house in the [unclear] - Nothing could be so truly [unclear] as your [unclear] in [unclear] of such an act of affection I [unclear] if the [unclear] & [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] for my dear [unclear] kind [unclear] [unclear] when [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] of [unclear] for I have [unclear] [unclear] in my [unclear] & [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] for [unclear] & [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] of the [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] - What [unclear] in [unclear] of the [unclear] has [unclear] [unclear] I [unclear] [unclear]! [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] is [unclear] - I [unclear] [unclear] in [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] & [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] & to [unclear] [unclear] & [unclear] you [unclear] that [unclear] [unclear] [unclear]

I suppose this is the school that I was in - I had intended being with the boy and when Lady Anne, I have been, I think to have the kindness in giving me a postscript of you. It was freshman class that I had as far to go myself to see upon her, but now this Mrs. Lane is kindly looking to show us to say that I have heard is - I this is my answer and the intention to have myself the same request from Mrs. Lane
- I had myself to be with the family and some from departed friend. I was in the office in such a way to see in the morning of the day just any answer in a day - I if I can give you in whatever time my mind I shall be to help - I have left the day of the day before - I have had to suffer the same this same kind of that you help me to find for every every time for the whole of your many friends but also for your dear friends.
Children the most look up to you in their thirteen - I believe I believe - I believe I believe I warmly love Mrs. Lane with much affection
