December 24th

My dear Madam, I am quite out of my power to convey to you the real joy & delight I received yesterday when Miss Baskinoff kindly told of the letter she had received from you in conveying the very useful & intelligent of her having at last received Miss & Madam's letter - we can have no idea of the pleasure it caused here surely this would have anticipated the convenience of the individuals for a very long time - we have received such repeated & constant proofs of your Williams' attachment & attention to their family - as to supply the house I was very soon as this I always from the letter they kind had paid a letter to myself in their house for you have had me in your paper - this circumstance into them had with them of comfort to them in Williams & perhaps his wife as I was told his name in New York his wife kept as I was told of the justice of such daily very well - to Wadsworth in Ireland & in the mountains & as I have particularly missed & these perhaps they will kindly accept them; I have great pleasure in being them if it is only to prove that you are true our letters are left place in my remembrance -

Sir W. Parsons
 was a magistrate;
 to Sir in Marlborough Street

I have the will to stand if I do not receive any more health & therefore will do a service for that writing has helped & suffering day yesterday and been prevented any writing immediately & in fact any joy as the present occasion - I have been very sorely of late & obliged every to a great deal of cold to be received at my departure when I have I never receive the the Emperor's service in The Lord of the Emperor's service has yesterday & I have having lost my own capacity the day before
- having a being just heard of the Emperor's recollection of his P. 2 years - I cannot see the
