Dear Sir Will<sup>m</sup>

I have Her Majesty's Commands to send You this — it was Her Majesty's intention to have seen You the Morning after the Musick, and to have personally thanked You, for the Success of the Musick — which Your endeavours so greatly contributed to — but as You were gone, Her Majesty Commanded me to thank You in her Name, and to accept the Writer these Lines are to convey, as a Proof of the Satisfaction Her Majesty experienced at the Concert.

Give my Respects and Love to Lady and Miss Fanny Parsons. I am Sir

Your

sincere friend and obedient servant
