

[25th September 1803]

My good Friend

Thru the Queens Command to inform you his Majesty inform'd the King this Morning of Fanny's Match, and his Majesty express'd the greatest pleasure possible, said every kind thing possible and was delighted he was to hear it.

Ms Sophia received the enclosed from Lord Salisbury this Morning, will you give the goodness to write your dear Mother - few lines of direction how to proceed - tell her with my love that I believe her letter to Ms Sophia the moment I received it, how could she doubt it.

In justice very sincerely W<sup>m</sup> Cartwright has written to Dear F and so kindly, may she love her as she deserves and know her worth. Hope to see you Wednesday instead of Thursday if you can. Adieu my good Friend Fanny and Mr Kettle will keep up my spirits for a little Adieu

Your sincere Friend
L. Brerley
