Dear Sir

I take the liberty of troubling you with this letter in behalf of Mr. Vaul who already holds the appointment of Purveyor of Wines & Spirits to His Majesty, it appears that a person holding such an appointment has the power to ~~sell in small~~ by an act of Charles the 2. which has never been repeated to sell in bottles without the consent or controul of the Board of Excise, or by requiring them to per= -mit a License to do so as M. Law has no wish to deprave the Revenue This favor has been confered upon a Person (thru' the sollicitation of Lord Nelson) who is now enjoying its Privilege in its fullest extent.

Yours
most obediently

J. Marmale Esq
Sturtevant
