

His Royal Highness
The Prince of Wales

To Wicket and Henderson
151 New Bond Street

1897
December

Painting Chinese ornaments in oil colours, with parts heightened and gilt with metal on the inside and outside of twelve divisions forming four Chinese pagoda's, supported by small columns painted and gilt in metal Preparing bases and pedestals for lengthening Chinese columns - intended to form an architectural appearance and painting on a large Chinese landscape to cover a wall.

100

Mans twice taking down the ornament panels in the Chinese room, and taking them up in another room

12.

Carried Over £ 100.. 12.. 0

Brought Over £100.12.0

Room adjoining the Scarlet Room

New stone and materials for repairing the old grounds of the panels to the profiles of the ornament border, Hanging ditto with fine wove stamped elephant paper & priming ditto - colouring peach colour and picking in to the profiles of festoon ornaments and border

15. 0. 0

Gothic Library

Carvassing and repairing the walls and ceiling - and hanging them with an underlining paper, Decorating the ceiling and sides with enriched gothic ornaments grained in oak Graining the shutters, soffits, lining and sashes - oak and varnishing the whole

117. 2. 10

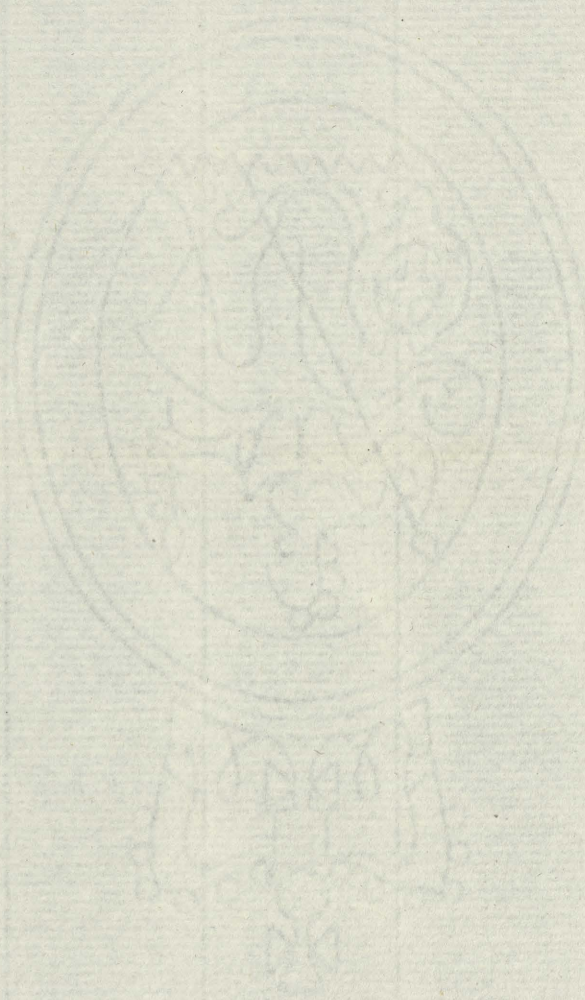

282. 14. 10

0

0

10

10

Forbes & Henderson

F 202. 14. 10

1807