

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales
By order of M. Foxworth at Windsor To George Davis

1810
Nov <sup>r</sup> 13	New brass patent double chambered private suit box lock with cylinder to which pins are affixed in different directions instead of wards . . . . .		3-18-6
	new solid silver escutcheon screws fixing		8-6
	2 case hardened polished keys . . . . .		1-8-
	new stout made dovetailed handle box covered with best black morocco lined with velvet marble paper new extra silver handle &c &c . . . . .		1-18-
Dec <sup>r</sup> 3	new extra size brass patent double chambered treble link chest lock full suit private principle as above		4-18-6
	new solid silver escutcheon screws fixing		8-6
	new particular made extra large size substantial dovetailed Box made of well seasoned old wood to prevent warping lined with velvet marble paper new strong silver handle strong home made hinges &c . . . . .		4-5-
1811
Jan <sup>y</sup> 16	New home made full suit solid ward box lock . . . . .		1-2-
	taking off old lock refixing new D. screws . . . . .		3-6
23	new home made solid ward D. in suit making good the lining of the box taking off the old lock refixing the new D. silvering the handle & escutcheon new marble paper &c . . . . .		1-2- 12-6

£ 20-5-

✓

ROYAL MAIL
JAMES
1811
DUNDEE

✓
£ 20. 5 -
Geo. Davis
Lockhart

