4) Distan, Tuckwell senr. & Niebour, all three are so distresp'd on account of their large families, and being in every respect worthy to be recommended to His Majesty's gracious Benevolence, deserve to have each one Boy placed on the strength of the Band. It would be a matter of perspective Comfort to the Band, if His Majesty would be most graciously pleased, to command that in future any vacancy's occurring in the situation of State Trumpeters (8 in number) should be fill'd up by individualls of the Band, the same as the casualties which take place from time to time, in the Kings Band of Musicians in Ordinary

Absentees from practice without leave to lose the moiety of a Days pay, and if succepively repeated the whole.
