

His Majesty.

To D Egg. - Gun-Maker.

1824
September 30.

	£	s.	d.
To cleaning two Silver Mounted double Barrel Guns. The Bolts and locks made to go proper -	0	12	-
To a best Velvet Cushion to the Rich ornamented double Gun by Botch and a small one for the Guard with Gold Lace -	2	2	-
To altering the Stock of a Steel Mounted double Gun with the barrel rifled, making the bend and length the same as the Silver Mounted double Gun by Botch, cutting the Butt $\frac{1}{2}$ an Inch shorter, altering the Steel plate & fixing it making it much lower and longer in the hand, the Breach sunk the Silver pierced Feathers re fitted, the Stock reduced made off & rechequered the same as new, a piece fitted in the Stock to fasten the front of the Cushion. -	2	10	-
To a pair of best double Gun detonating locks fitted to the above with side Plug, fixed to the Locks Plates for Pegs & to screw off and on, with vent Screws &c. & completed in the best manner -	12	12	-
To two spare Pegs and vent Screws -		10	6
To hooking the Locks & fitting them on with strong side Nails & a spare one -		18	-
To altering the Flint Locks for strong side nails & a new side nail, the plates realed & new hooking, the Locks Polished & rehardened and made to go proper, & the Furniture, 2 new Steel plate Screws the whole engraved and hardened the same as new -	3	18	6
To proving & Browning the Barrels -	1	1	-
To a best Velvet Cushion with Gold Lace, and a small one for the Guard -	2	2	-
Carried over. - - -	£	26	6

	£	s	d
Brought Forward	26	6	-
To altering the Stock of a Steel Mounted double Gun with the Barrels rifled, the fellow to the above, making the bend and length the same as the Rich silver Mounted double Gun by Poter, cutting the Butt $\frac{1}{2}$ an Inch shorter, altering the Steel plate and refixing it, making it much lower longer in the hand the Breach sunk, The silver Pierced Leathers refitted, the Stock reduced, made off & rechequered the same as new & a new piece fitted in the Stock to fasten the front of the Cushion	2	10	-
To a pair of the best double Gun detonating Locks fitted to the above with side plugs fixed to the Locks Plates for Pegs &c. to screw off and on with vent screws &c. Completed in the very best manner	12	12	-
To two spare Vent screws and Pegs	-	10	6
To hooking the Locks and fitting them on with strong side nail and a spare one, contracting the Breach by sinking the Locks altering the Stock to fellow the other	1	1	6
To altering the Flint Locks for strong side nails, with a new strong side nail, the plates recaled new hooking them the Locks polished & rehardened & made to go proper - & the Furniture, two new Steel plate Screws the whole engraved and polished the same as new	3	18	6
To a best Velvet Cushion with Gold lace and a small one for the Guard	2	2	-
To a pair of the best Patent Breach pins fitted to the Barrels with Platina holes Gold rims &c. to fellow the other Gun, browning & proving the Barrels	7	7	-
To a best Steel punch, with two packs of flat wadding & spare Peds.	1	9	6
To 100 of the Best picked Flint	-	8	-
To a best Fire proof Patent Powder Flask	1	1	-
To a best Shot Belt & six Steel Charges	1	16	-
Carried Forward	£	61	2

D. Bay - April 1824

John - Walker

£288-19-6

By Sir W. Stewart & Co
on 2. Aug. 1825

W. G. Bay

£288-19-6