

George R.

We George the Fourth King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland make this our last Will and Testament revoking all former Wills Testaments and Codicils and all instruments & writings intended by us to operate as Testamentary Instruments Wills or Codicils whether the same were made before or after Our accession to the Crown & hereby declaring that all and every of the same shall be of no force or validity whatever.

It is our Will that all such debts as shall be owing by us at the time of our demise and which are properly payable out of our Privity purse shall be paid and discharged out of and be charged and chargeable upon all such personal estate and effects and all such real estate as We are by Law empowered to devise or dispose of by Will.

We do hereby appoint the Duke of Wellington, Baron Gifford, Chief Justice of the Common Pleas and Sir W<sup>m</sup> Knighton Bart. Keeper of our Privity purse, Executors of this Our Will hereby directing them to pay and satisfy out of such personal Estate and Effects as We can by Law dispose of by Will our said debts and also such legacies and bequests as we shall hereafter give by any Codicil or Codicils to be executed signed and published by us in the presence of and to be attested by three or more Witnesses And We do hereby charge all such real estate as We can by Law charge or dispose of by Will with the payment and making good of such Legacies and bequests. But we declare it not to be our meaning that our Executors or any of them should take any beneficial interest in our property by this Will the same being intended only to vest in them the Office of Executors and our property real and personal shall go as if we had died intestate, save as the same or any part thereof is expressly given disposed of or charged by this Will or should be expressly given — [Signed George R] (signed) George R disposed of or charged by any such Codicil or Codicils as aforesaid.—

We do hereby also give to Our said Executors all such papers and writings of what nature or kind soever the same may be which we have by Law power to give or dispose of to be dealt with as follows, that is to say That the said Duke & our W<sup>m</sup> Knighiton if they shall both survive us and in case the said Duke shall die in our lifetime and the said Baron Gifford and Sir W<sup>m</sup> Knighiton shall be living at our demise then the said Baron Gifford and Sir W<sup>m</sup> Knighiton and in case the said Sir William Knighiton shall depart this life before us and the said Duke and Baron Gifford shall survive us then the said Duke and Baron as the respective cases may happen shall take all such papers and writings as aforesaid into their possession and shall most carefully examine the same, and after such most careful examination shall preserve or destroy such of the same respectively as it shall seem meet and proper to them to preserve or destroy respectively; and it is our express Will that they shall not be answerable or accountable to any persons or Courts for or on account of their destroying any such papers and writings as we have power by Will to dispose or direct to be destroyed

And our express Will further is that as to such papers and writings as they shall not think fit to destroy but to preserve and over which we have any disposing power we do hereby give them full and absolute power and authority to direct them to be delivered to and kept and preserved by such person and persons and for such purposes as they shall think fit.

And in case no two of such persons as aforesaid shall be living at the time of our demise then the only one of the three persons aforesaid surviving us shall have the like powers authorities and indemnities in all respects as to and with regard to all such papers and writings as aforesaid as we have before given to any two of the said three persons [signed] - George R - signed George R unless we shall by any Codicil or Codicils executed signed published and attested as aforesaid nominate and appoint any other person or persons to act together with such surviving person as aforesaid in the dealing with and disposing of such papers and writings

And in appointing the three persons aforesaid to be Our Executors Our meaning is to appoint them and the survivor and survivor of them Our Executors and Executor reserving to Ourselves power to add such other Executors or Executor as we may think fit by any codicil or Codicils executed signed published and attested as aforesaid -

And we do hereby publish and declare this Instrument to be Our last Will and Testament and have with Our Royal sign manual signed the same at the beginning and the bottom of each of the two first sides of this sheet of paper and at the beginning of this side hereof and at the end of this Our Will so publishing declaring and signing the same in the presence of the four credible persons whose names are hereunder written as attesting the publishing declaring and signing the same as Witnessed hereto in our presence the 30th day of June 1824.

Signed
George R

Signed sealed published and declared by His Majesty King George the fourth (such sealing being made by him and such signatures being made by His Royal sign manual) as and for his last Will and Testament this 30th day of June 1824 in the presence of us who have hereunto and in His presence and in the presence of each other written our names as Witnesses attesting the execution publishing declaring sealing and signing of the same by His said Majesty and such signatures of His said Majesty being made by him in our presence at the beginning and bottom of each of the two first sides of this sheet of paper and at the beginning of this side hereof and at the end of the above Will.

Signed Eldon C.
Westmoreland C P S
Bathurst
Robert Peel

26184 - 5

Dated 30th June, 1821

Copy W.W.

His late Majesty
King George IV.

Janv. Dury H.C.