

The Queen

no Date. Supposed about 1700

36357

I send Your Majesty the Dutcheſs of Argyles Letter to me, I know there is also one for You, Her indelicacy goes a great way, and I am of opinion with my humble advice that Your Majesty would now do better to let the Duke of Manchester acquaint Her that Her Daughter ſhould not come to Court, or be ill received, as letting Her come will open the Door to others for though ſhe is not divorced, ſhe has ſtood ~~an~~ publick Scandal.
I declare I ſhall neither ſpeak to Mother or Daughter, and if ſhe leaves my Family I ſhall but yet read of ſome impertinent Perſon who has always behaved diſreſpectful to me

Charlotte.

There will be time enough to ſend to the Duke of Manchester I ſhall not answer the Dutcheſs of Argyles Letter.

