Dear Sir,

Yours of this day has given me both pain and comfort. However the respect of His Majesty's own feelings from himself are peculiarly grate-ful and for which I thank you most sincerely. God grant they may continue. I put my trust in the Almighty and your skill. I still hope the King will be served to us all. I am glad the King was able to see the Dutchess of Gloucester and that I may receive equal favourable answers tomorrow.
I can believe me,

Dear Sir,
Yours truly

W. Pitt Rivers
