Post Private 45224

Bushy House,

Confidential

May 16: 1830.

Dear Sir,

Your "Post Private" and "Confidential" of this day has reached me. The first part is decidedly comfortable. That His Majesty might the extraordinary powers of the most extraordinary constitution continue to find an alleviation of those symptoms which gave you so much painful and oppressive anxiety, tho' the thing had not a good night. The latter part is certainly less cheering. Still however I put my trust in God and not only in your medical abilities and those of Dr. William Thirington but also in the affectionate atten-

- I have of you both in the best and most beloved of my friends.

Dear Sir,

Dear Sir,

Yours truly

William Pitt
