Dear Sir,

Yours of this day has just reached me and any momentary comfort enjoyed by the King must be to me a matter of satis-faction. I rejoice therefore in the good night His Majesty had. The manifestation of the same force of disease is however painful and a pain inevitable. I however, shall be glad - to see and must ever under any circumstances be happy to see you.

Ever believe me,

Dear Sir,

Yours truly
A. Mitchell
