Bushy House
June 7: 1830.

Dear Sir,

" Yours Post Private and Confidential has just reached me and is unfortunately
- made only by the account I expected after what I came with the innumerable regret yesterday. The evening
- yesterday being passed under great inquietude and the night in great embarrassment and sleepless surprise, as the I lament both for the sake of the poor suffering King. I thought His Majesty never could see the Bishop and speak his danger and inter religious subject with great pity and resignation. I equally conceived the King would act as your state towards his sisters.
I assure the situation of my poor suffering and so.

- collect together the best of the signs of the end of Friendship must have become more critical and more dangerous.

How soon the Almighty may deprive me in justice and the Dial in general of your beloved the
- march I know not. But I must be sure the justice you have never denied me and that I am most perfectly satisfied your superior rhetorical abilities together with the most affectionate and most judicious care have been ever taught me,
- played to save if possible the life of your beloved and most dear child.

I can believe me,

Dear Sir,

Yours truly
