My dearest brother

what obligations have we not to you for the uneasiness you express for Charles he is growing stronger every day, & I hope soon to be able to write that he is quite well William is gone last Sunday morning I wished to have kept him longer but I knew that he would not like to be asked to stay I leave it to him to give an account of us but his modesty won't allow him to say how much every body has in every place been pleased with him I ever am my dearest brother your most delightful subject & sister

18 do try to persuade my mother to come to B- I have wrote her by this post to beg of her & William has promised to do all he can & I hope she will be persuaded

My dear Mother
I have just received your letter of the 14th and was glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same things. I have not yet seen any of the people you mentioned. I will write again when I have more news to tell. I am your affectionate daughter
