My dearest brother

what you say of Caroline is very alarming as Mr Gummings has wrote. if I can not help fearin that there is very little hope of her recovery, I take the liberty to send you these letters that you & my mother may consult to gather what I had best to do, for its very hard for me to give up for ever the pleasure of see in you, & to leave the Prince in I write this is truly my case; I ever am

your most dubifub subject &
Sister Augusta
