antoinette's letter th 1 of July 1771

My dearest brother

according to your orders I have answer'd the King of Sweden; our Baker. Melo has wrote to the Prince to desire to be one of his knights at the Installation & we are in doubt what answer to give his, we wish that you would decide how it is to be that we may have no blame in this affair. I hear that my sister rides full which makes me very uneasy as she is so near her time. I ever am

your most dutiful subject & sister

augusta

Handwritten text on a rectangular piece of aged paper, possibly a fragment of a letter or document. The text is written in a cursive script and is mostly illegible due to fading and the angle of the fragment. Some words are difficult to discern, but they appear to be in an older form of English. The fragment is placed on a larger, blank sheet of paper.
