

Duchess of Brunswick to ? Prince Augustus

Bronsvic May 20th 1789

52149

Sir

It is with infinite pleasure that I hear by your own account that you are better. I hope you will continue so. I can easily conceive how happy the Kings coming would make you, I believe it would contribute to the perfecting the Kings health, but from what I am able to gather, tho' not from any particular information, I am inclin'd to believe nothing certain is yet determin'd, your R. H. may imagine a Journey of that importance will require mature deliberation before it can be undertaken may I beg to be remember'd to your brother

I remain

Sir

your Royal Highness

most affectionate

Aunt

Augusta

Duchess of Brunswick

1787

1787

The most of his pleasure the day of your account that you are happy to have your and early concern has happy the day of your on I think it would be better to be perfect in health but from what I hear it is not from any particular information has not been certain a good deal more of you it is not that importance will require more attention can be undertaken may be to be made to be

I am
 your most affectionately
 your father