

The Queen of Denmark

8th October 1766

52289

Sir

We are now within nine miles of Rotterdam, and in great hopes of arriving there this evening. we had a very good passage as the Captain says but I fancy it was a storm, as we were no more than twelve hours out of sight of land, I have been very sick but thank God I am now quite recovered, and am very impatient to leave the yacht. I have the honour of being

Sir your

Majesty's Dutiful

Subject and

Sister
Caroline.

Oct 8th 1766.

1833

[Faint, illegible handwriting on lined paper]