Sir

I am very glad to find that you excuse my neglect in not giving your letters to the King for two days, and if I should ever have it in my power again, I assure you it shall not happen. I fear that I shall not go with the King this spring to Holstein, he seems to think there is no occasion to be troubled with me. he told it me when I had not been here longer than a week I wish it was in my power to write more openly to you, but you know it is not my fault. I have the pleasure of subscribing my self Dear Sir

Your most Affectionate

Sister Caroline,

Dear Mother

I have just received your letter of the 14th and was glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you all the same. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same work. I have not seen any of the old friends here. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same work.
