Christiansbourg March 14th 1767.

Sir

I had the pleasure of receiving Yesterday Your letter, dated the 20th of last Month, by which I find my conduct has Your approbation, which gives me great satisfaction, I fear my letters ~~do~~ not allways arrive to London as all the family reproach me that I ~~do~~ not write to them, in particular Louisa to whom I never miss a week writing, I suppose You will have heard of all the disagreeable changes that we have here, but there is now hopes that the person that has done all this mischief will be sent away, his family have allways been Enemies to the Country, and he certainly is likewise, his name is Goarts, and he is from Besse, which shows his ingratitude as

as he was brought into the Country by P^B, who he would now send away, as he will not come into his projects, of changing the Ministry. I hope that the next time that I write, we shall be in a more agreeable situation, and believe me ever

Your most Affectionate Sister
Caroline.
