Dear Brother,

I had allways hoped that Brother William would not make known his Marriage, and I think him very much to be pitied in his present situation, I do not suppose that he will mention it to my Sister or me, as we have not heard from him since. Prince Charles of Hesse has been sent for to Copenhagen, he set off as soon as the Messenger arrived at Sleswick. it is said that the King has had a severe attack of his old illness, and that it has occasioned a general alarm, as I wish to have some body about ^{me} that can settle all my affairs, I have thought of Struense, who was in the Chamber of finances at Cop., and whose conduct was approved of by most people, Sir R. Keith can certainly give You his Character. but as I intend doing nothing without Your advice, I shall wait til I know what You think about it, I am dear Brother Your affectionate Sister,

Caroline Mathilda.
