

New Years letter from
The Landgravine of Hesse-Cassel
Hanau Dec^r. 22^d. 1765.

52422

Sir

I seize with pleasure every occasion to assure You of my most sincere wishes for Your Majesty's having every blessing this World can afford. Permit me Sir as the change of the Year gives me at present this opportunity to say that no one can wish You Sir a longer nor happier life than she who owes You all the tranquillity she now enjoy's, through Your Protection to my Sons I have nothing left to wish but that by their conduct they may deserve the continuation of it. I ever shall remain with the utmost gratitude and respect

Sir
Your Majesty's

Hanau
Dec^r. 22^d.
1765

most obedient humble servant
and Aunt
Mary
