

52957

Sir

I beg leave to lay myself at Y. M. feet, humbly hoping, y<sup>t</sup> Y. M. will suffer me, to return my most humble thanks, for Y. M. great goodness, in permitting my son, to continue his residence with me; this gracious mark of Y. M. favour, makes me unspeakably happy, & fills my breast with y<sup>e</sup> warmest gratitude; there is nothing I more sincerely wish, than to convince Y. M. by every action of my life; y<sup>t</sup> I am not entirely unworthy of y<sup>e</sup> confidence Y. M. is pleas'd to place in me; & y<sup>t</sup> I ever was & ever shall be &c.

Letter from the Poucheb<sup>re</sup> <sup>re</sup> The order to the King's Message
September 4, 1756.