

(63)

vous pourie croire ma chere Kethon, dans quelle allarme Je suis en venans la vendredy, Je lais trouvais, ma pauvre amelie, avec une grand fièvre, Je fist que le prince parla une pent vivement, pour la faire sainger, ce qui nait pas fait avans ce mattin, et quoy que Je lais ayie pris pour lamour de dieu, de luy mettre des vesicatoire, il ne l'ont fait, et il feron come vous le verais, par la letter jointe Je vous pris de bien remercie Notre amie, quil restera, pour an pouvoir avoir, son avie, Je crois si elle trove apropos, que si la fièvre ne la quite, elle soit encore sainger, aujourdnis, vous aurais de mes nouvelle en revenans de Kersinther Je laurais ven 2 foy alors

Caroline

You may believe my dear Clayton when in coming on Wednesday, I found my poor Amely in a great feavour. I made the Prince speak a little warmly to have her blouded, which she was not before the morning.
 & tho' I beg'd them for the love of God to put on a blister they did not doe it. But they did as you will see by the letter that comes with this. pray thank our friend kindly for staying that we may have his advice. I believe if He thinks it proper & the feavour does not leave her she may be blouded again to day. You have of my entertaining news from Kensington, I went there twice.

Caroline

† Dr. Friend stays
 in town on purpose tho' sent for to a patient in the Country.