

(31)

18 Oct. 1725

Je reene votre lettre Ma chere Clayton, par Lady Bomfret, vous serai, Charmé de cette orthographe, si Lady Barnard ven venire demandé la place pour sa fille.
elle sera recu fort agreablement, et presenté le jour de la Naisance du prince, Je suis for Continte de Lady pomfret. elle se temoigner, come si elle main, elle a de l'esprit, et l'experience du monde, et les bone Conseil, des amie, enferme une vrai, feme de qualite, ele se comport, a merveille dan la famille, et tout le monde en est Contante, Jespere que Je vous verai bien tot, et que vous me verai en tout, et par tout, votre tendre amie.

Caroline

Je me souvient toujours du bon, et Honeste M<sup>r</sup>. Clayton

I receiv'd my dear Clayton your letter by Lady Pomfret, you will be charm'd with this spelling, if Lady Barnard will come & ask the place for her daughter she shall be receiv'd very agreably & presented on the Princes birthday. I am very well satisfy'd with Lady Pomfret she seems as if she lov'd me, & has wit & the experience of the world, & the advice of a good friend will make her a real woman of quality. She behaves wonderfully well in the family & every body is satisfy'd with her. I hope I shall see you soone; & that you will see me in every thing, & every where your tender friend. Caroline I remember always good & honest M<sup>r</sup>. Clayton.

+ The name is spelt Bomfret in the original.