Dear Danicell,

I write thus because it is late to my eldest daughter who is not desirous of any one knowing she is to be dining over at seven at Beech House till she goes there with

Thos. Wilson

The two B.D. rooms the Study and the Cambridge rooms they will sleep in: they will use the Palacen as their sitting room and the Dining Room: you will take care the Coachman carries the horses regularly and that my daughter uses them allowed. I will thank you to have a most helpful appears Charter: write confidentially to Sophia to know when she will have Busby House read-dy for her reception: the plate from the Acad-emy given will serve for the 1st Janis: another advantage will be that all will be quite safe as Busby House will be in the city.

I shall answer you regularly whenever I can do -ing my absence: but I intend making occasional absences which may delay my acknowledg-ing your letters: by my present intentions we cannot come back before Saturday the Twenty Eighth September on which day I wish to have the house ready for us: Love me to and be sure to be home

Wednesday: I wish I was of the party: but can better be on a land now, be lieve me,

Dear Sir,
Yours sincerely
Wm Pitt
