St. James's.
Thursday Noon.

Dear Sir, It is my present intention unless you hear to the contrary to return to Busby next Saturday at half past eleven and I will thank you to order a pair of horses to be here with the Post Chaise at that hour and my saddle horses at Busby House at half past one: you will go and fetch Augustus home: I have seen Sarah who will write to you and Remington and I think we shall at last have a pretty good stock of mine: Hope Collins's business is settled and under all the circumstances tolerably well: I must pay four hundred at once and then he is satisfied with the two hundred fr. quarters: remember me most affectionately to the young ladies and I ever remain,

I Dear Sir,

Yours sincerely

J. J. [Signature]

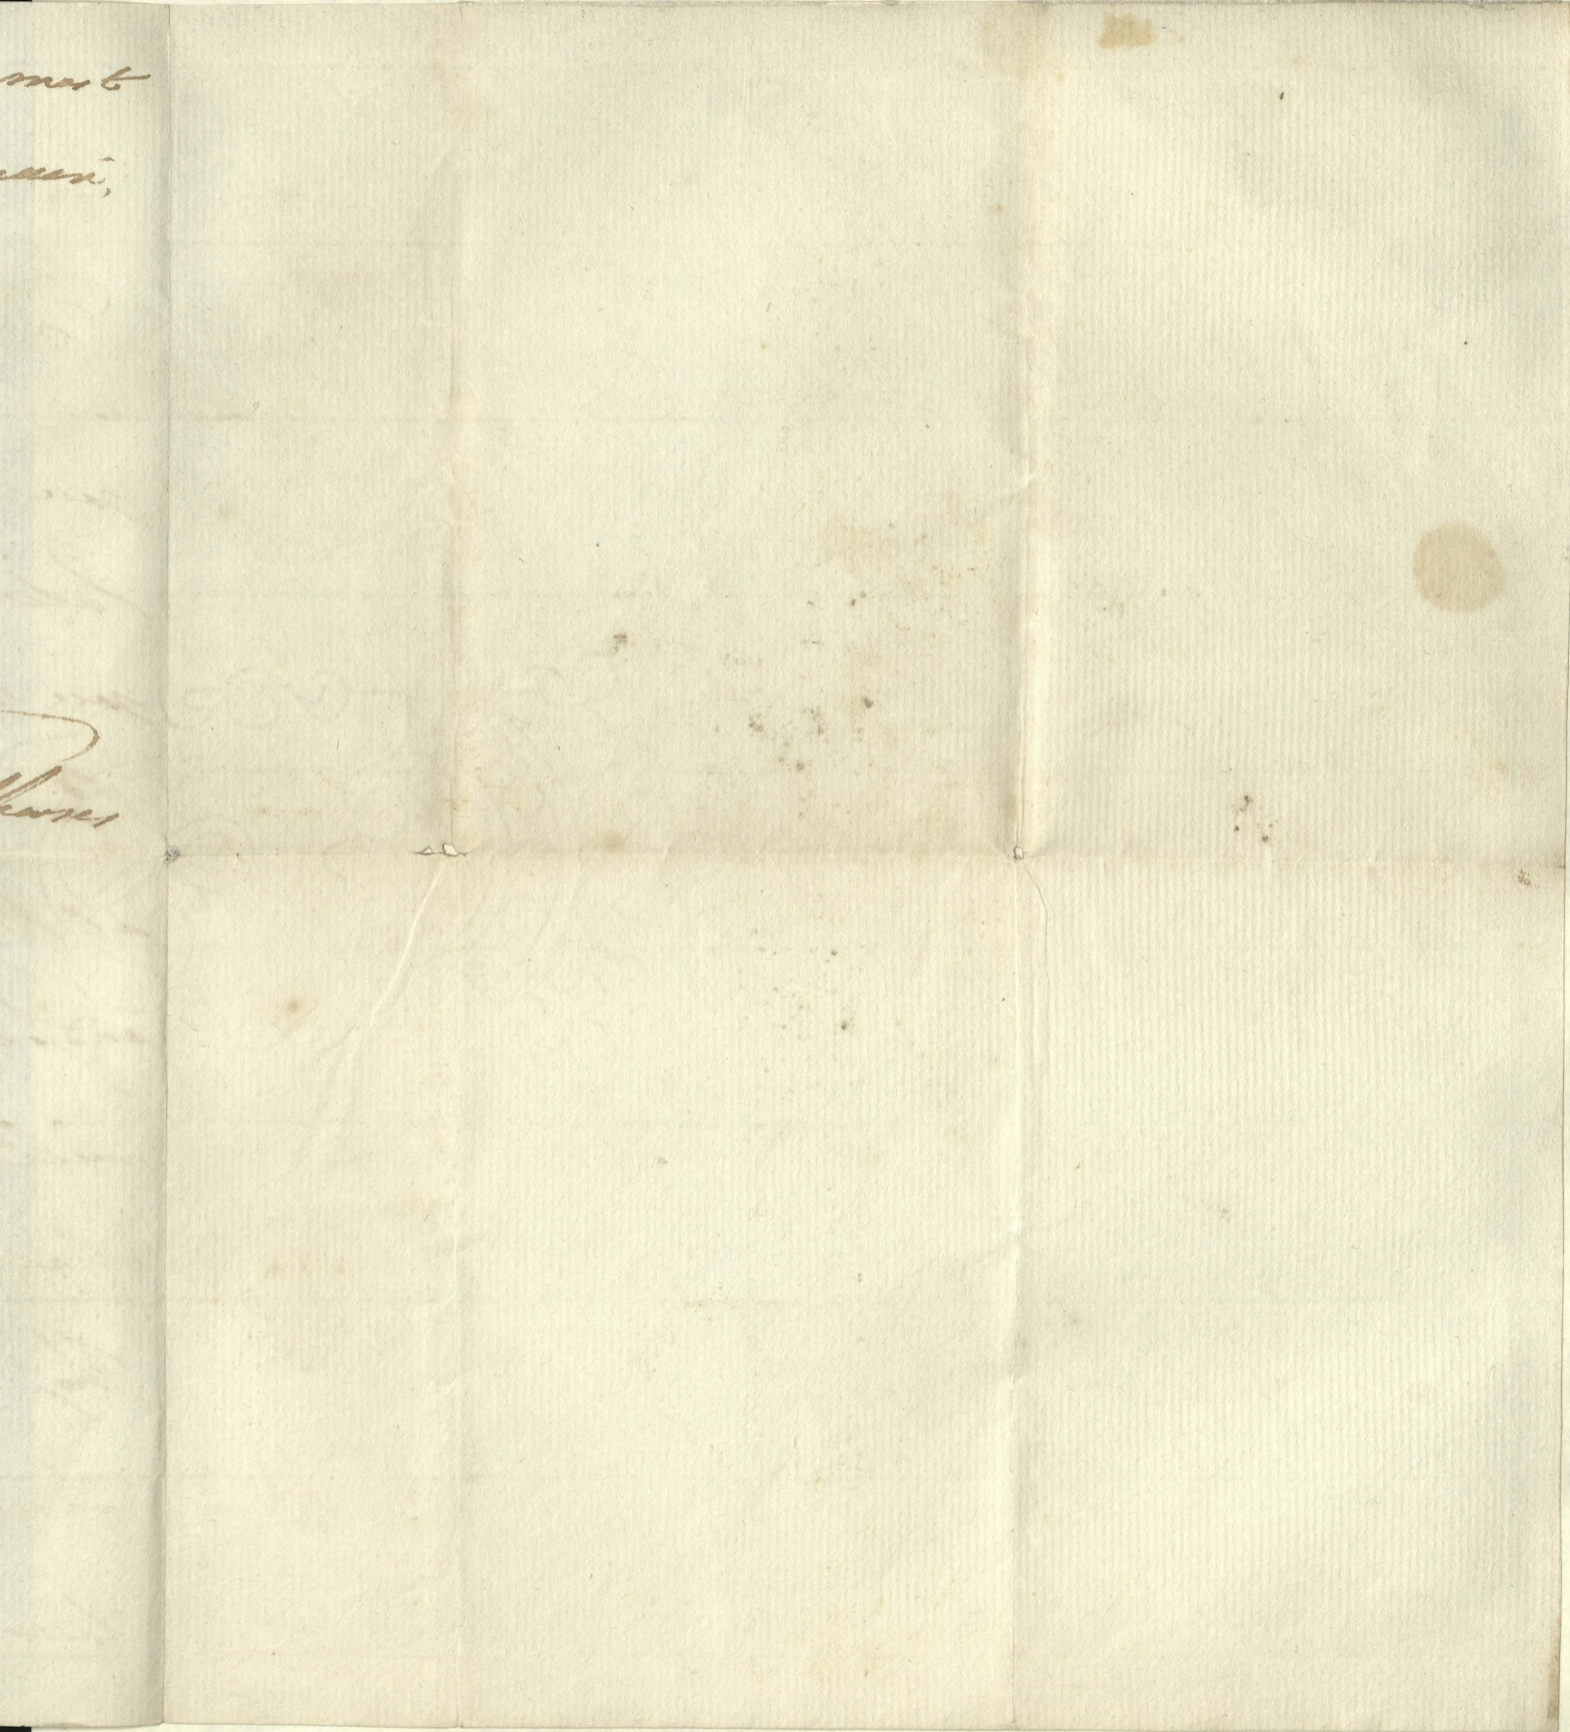

P.S. The Post Chaise is in town and the pair of horses only is to come down next Saturday.
