

The 21st Article of War.

If any Person in the Fleet shall find cause of Complaint of the unwholesomeness of the Victual, or upon other just ground, he shall quietly make the same known to his Superior, or Captain, or Commander in chief, as the occasion may deserve, that such present Remedy may be had as the Matter may require; and the said Superior, Captain, or Commander in chief, shall, as far as he is able, cause the same to be presently remedied; and no Person in the Fleet, upon any such or other Pretence, shall attempt to stir up any Disturbance, upon pain of such Punishment as a Court Martial shall think fit to inflict, according to the degree of the Offence.

The 11th Article in the Section of the General printed Instructions respecting Courts Martial.

All Complaints at Sea, or in foreign Parts, upon which the summoning a Court Martial is to be grounded, shall be made in writing to the Commander in Chief, (unless where the said Commander in Chief shall see Cause of himself to assemble the same, in which are to be set forth the particular facts, with the Place, Time, and in what Manner they were committed. And if any Captain who is entitled by his Rank to sit in the Court, be personally concerned in the Matter to be tried, he shall not be admitted to sit at the said Tryal
